

SOLIS
TURKEY

The Lycean Coast

Charter out of Marmaris, Gocek or Fethiye and sail the magnificent Lycean coast! Surrounded by tall mountains, Lycean ruins, and turquoise waters the area is a true Mediterranean paradise.

In ancient times the Lycean's, who featured in Homer's Iliad, settled in the region and the ruins of their cities and majestic rock tombs are interspersed throughout the region. The Lycean coast is an area full of natural splendor & history that's just begging to be explored on a sailing holiday.

The Lycean coast has destinations to suit everyone's taste; from the luxurious & upmarket towns of Gocek & Kalkan, to the well established Oludeniz – Where you'll find a glorious white-sand beach, blue lagoon and surrounding national park. The Lycean Coast is fast growing in popularity and quickly becoming established as one of the Mediterraneans premier sailing destinations.

SOLIS

1 Wk Gocek Return

Sat: Gocek to Kapi Creek
Sun: Kapi Creek to Ekincik
Mon: Ekincik to Cold Water Bay
Tues: Cold Water Bay to Kas
Weds: Kas to Kalkan
Thurs: Kalkan to Fethiye
Fri: Fethiye to Gocek

Kas - Kas is one of the more developed settlements along the Lycean Coast, here you'll find convenient provisioning, marina facilities and dining. A short walk from the town you'll find the mostly intact remains of an ancient Hellenistic amphitheater. Set against the sea the amphitheater is amazingly well preserved and a must for any history lovers.

Take the time to visit the nearby island of Kekova where you'll come across the underwater ruins of Dolchiste, an ancient Lycean settlement that sank into the sea after an earthquake in the 2nd century.

SOLIS

1 Wk Marmaris Return

Sat: Marmaris to Ekincik
Sun: Ekincik to Fethiye
Mon: Fethiye to Kalkan
Tues: Kalkan to Kas
Weds: Kas to Oludeniz
Thurs: Oludeniz to Kapi Creek
Fri: Kapi Creek to Marmaris

Kalkan - Kalkan has a typically Mediterranean feel about it. Whitewashed houses and brightly coloured flowers lining its small cobbled streets. Nearby you'll find the wonderful Patara beach – this 12km long stretch of pristine sands makes for a wonderful stroll. You could also venture to leave the boat in port for a while and visit some of the nearby in-land attractions:

Head to the nearby Saklikent National Park where you can tube down a stunning river gorge. Or if historical landmarks sit high on your list of things to do; check out the world-famous UNESCO sites at Letoon and Xanthos. Just a short taxi ride will take you to these astounding sites of historical significance.

S Q L I S